DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendments

1. The reply filed 03/21/02 consists of cancellation of remaining previous claims, addition of new claims 32-42 and remarks related to rejection of claims. The claims are not allowable as explained below.

Specification

2. The following is a quotation of an appropriate paragraph of 37 CFR 1.75:

(d) The claim or claims must conform to the invention as set forth in the remainder of the specification and the terms and phrases used in the claims must find clear support or antecedent basis in the description so that the meaning of the terms in the claims may be ascertainable by reference to the description. (See 1.58(a)).
3. Specification is objected under 37 C.F.R. 1.75(d) because a trough-shaped clamping part (see Claim 32) has not been described in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 32-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Teagno et al.

Teagno (Figures 1-4) shows a device for connecting an electrode (pin) 14 to a wire 7 having an exterior sheath and a conductive core. The device has a solderable conductive body with a first pair of clamping arms 6 for pressing and securing the wire, a second pair of clamping arms for pressing and securing the conductive core of the wire, and a trough-shaped clamping part with sides 11 extending at right angles to the body, which snap-fit over the electrode 14 for pressing and securing the electrode. The first clamping arms can clinch the wire to prevent solder from flowing up the conductive core. The trough-shaped clamping part is integral with the body and includes a clamping structure 13, which is parallel with the body.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 03/21/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant simply states that Teagno does not show the elements recited in the claims, but does not provide any specifics as to which elements are not shown. As described in Paragraph 5 above, Teagno shows all the features as claimed.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
